

The Columbus Area Media Relations Team

The Power of a Simple Shoebox

Columbus Area Media Relations Team volunteers are responsible for the year-round promotion of Operation Christmas Child. These volunteers are gifted in building relationships with various media outlets, including radio, print, internet and television, with a goal of increasing awareness of the project and ultimately generating more shoebox gifts for the needy children around the world.